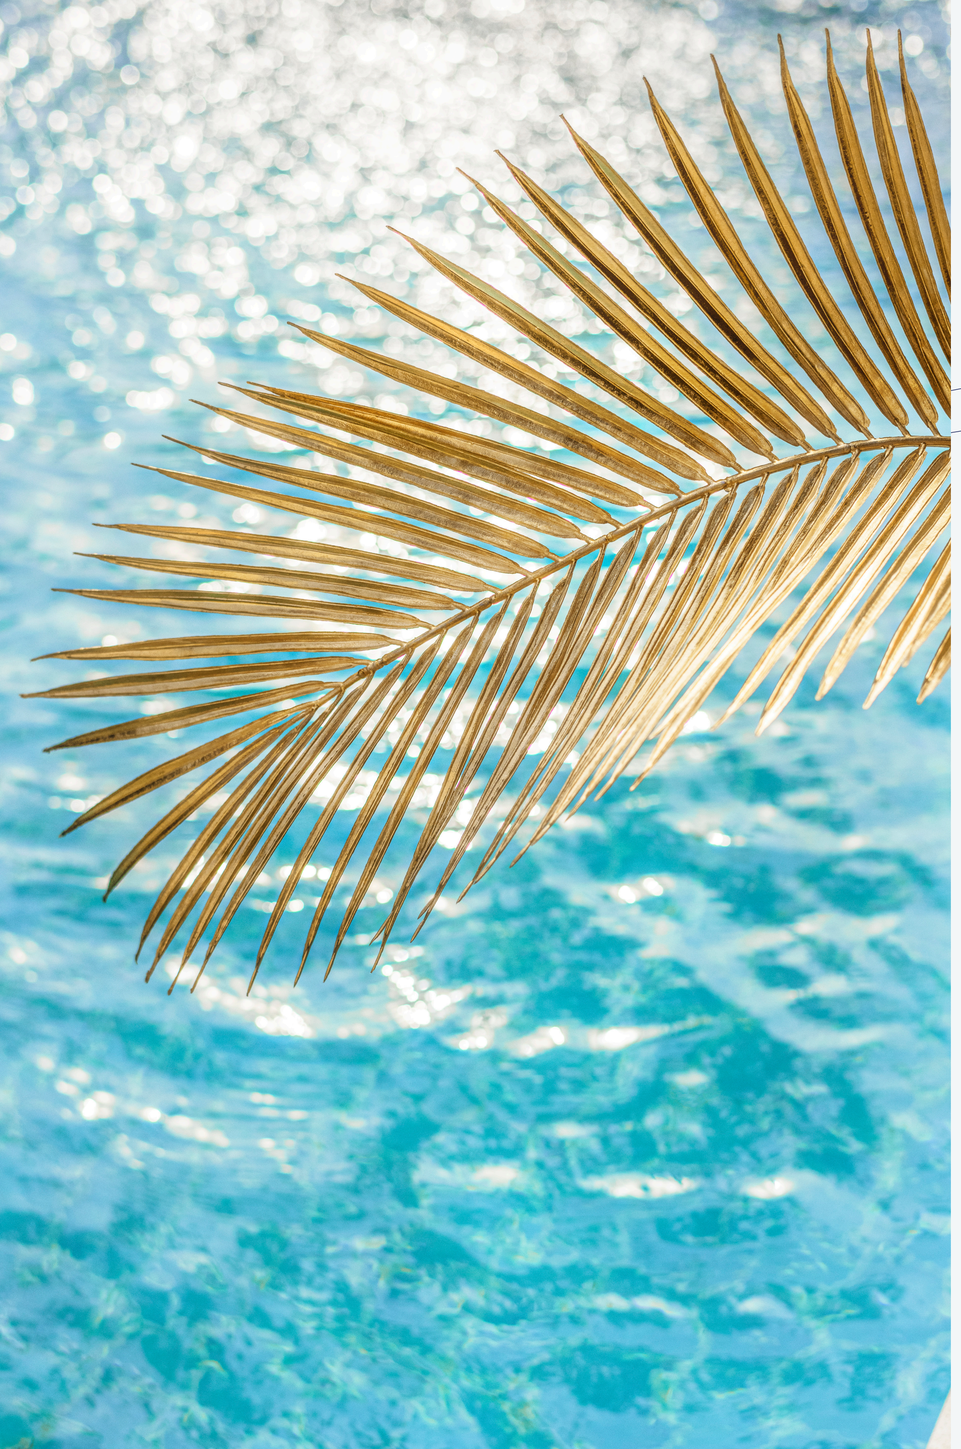
A NEW COASTAL COMMUNITY BY AOG DEVELOPMENTS



AOG Developments introduces a new royal philosophy of coastal living, where water, nature, and contemporary design come together to create a truly distinctive Mediterranean destination.

The New Meaning of Royal Living Surrounded by Ras El Hekma's most renowned destinations, Royal's places you at the center of a coastline shaping the future of Mediterranean living.

Its strategic location combines accessibility, prestige, and proximity to the region's most prestigious communities.

Inspired by the concept of “The Crowned Waters”, Royal’s Ras El Hekma is designed around vast lagoons that shape the identity of the entire community. Every element, from the architecture to the landscape, is carefully orchestrated to create a seamless connection between water, nature, and everyday living.
