

Badya's Masterplan

Badya's award-winning city masterplan was created by an expert team of master-planners, architects, transport planners and landscape architects coming together to develop a unique, multifunctional design-minded approach.

Badya is a self-sustaining, less vehicular reliant city.

6+1 Concept

It is founded on having 6 independent residential districts, with a non-residential district center where everything comes together.